

September 8, 2020

Dear Investor:

SkyBridge G II Fund LLC ("G II") generated an estimated 2.40% return in the month of August and a 12.74% return since our March drawdown.

The largest contributor to August's performance was Third Point Ultra which represented 84bps (gross) of the month's return. We are gratified that one of the portfolios "diversifiers" has added so much value. Interestingly, the Third Point Ultra position was primarily funded with proceeds of the EJV secondary sale. Given Third Point Ultra's 31.2% return since April 1st, we swapped this position into Third Point Partners on September 1st. Third Point Partners holds the same investments as Third Point Ultra, but is run with lower net exposure (currently about 45 pts less). Suffice to say, this swap was affected to mitigate overall portfolio risk.

The structured credit book continues to crank out solid months. In August, the average dollar weighted return of our structured credit managers was 2.03%. As the structured credit book generates approximately 0.68% monthly in cash flow, price appreciation contributed approximately 1.35% to the strategy's monthly return. We believe that there is room for considerable price appreciation from structured credit (aside from the inherent "pull to par"), and thus, we expect the total return from these assets to continue to be strong for the coming year. In fact, we are excited that G II has generated very good performance since April 1st without yet realizing the value embedded in structured credit.

We have developed our preliminary portfolio management game plan for October 1st (after satisfying pending redemptions). Given the outlook for our existing managers, we are going to maintain substantial portfolio continuity. Credit strategies (i.e. structured credit and distressed corporate credit) will continue to represent approximately 73% of the portfolio, and nine of the top ten managers will remain the same.

We have been surprised to learn that a number of financial advisors and investors were unaware that they can withdraw their pending redemptions. The deadline to do so is September 28th. We encourage submitting paperwork in advance of the deadline to ensure proper processing. For your convenience, attached is rescission paperwork.

Thank you for your partnership.

Regards,
